

PROGRAM
 'Stripping'
 Photos by Rose Marie

No matter what your quilt is intended for —everyday use, special-occasion use, heirloom use (which means no use!)— quilts need labels. The next time you're nearing the end of a project, ask your quilt a question: "Where will you be in 10, 20, 50 years?" If your quilt doesn't answer, she doesn't know. And that's why you need to make sure a label will link her directly back to you. No matter where you are.
